

Terms and conditions membership Marketing Association Amsterdam (MAA)

Article 1. Membership options

- a. There are three possibilities for membership: active membership, passive membership and alumni membership.
- b. In the first two years of your membership you are an active or a passive member. Active when you actively help the MAA in a committee, passive when you are not active in a committee.
- c. In your third year you will automatically be an alumni member. In case you want to become an alumni member in your second year, you have to tell secretary of the MAA.

Article 2. What does membership include?

- a. Your membership starts after you have completed the membership application on our website, or by filling in our offline membership form
- b. The membership year runs parallel with the academic year (September 1st-August 31st) and will automatically be renewed unless membership was cancelled following the under article 6 stated possibilities.
- c. Membership includes free entrance to the MAA-related activities unless stated otherwise. In all other cases being a member means you have a discount on the activities. In those cases we refer to the terms and conditions of the event itself.
- d. Besides the in article 2c stated advantages, alumni members can also go to alumni activities, which are not accessible for active or passive members.
- e. Semi-annual membership is possible in the first year of being a member, but only if you apply after February 1st. The same terms and conditions of this document apply for semi-annual membership.

Article 3. Membership fee

- a. The yearly membership fee for all members is €25 (twenty-five euros).
- b. Semi-annual membership is €12,50 (twelve euros and fifty cents). This is only possible for the second semester in the academic year.
- c. The membership fee is collected via automatic bank payment. By accepting the terms and conditions you automatically accept that the membership fee is written of your account. In case you do not have a Dutch bank account, you have to transfer the money to the MAA bank account within a week of application.

Article 4. Modification of membership details

- a. In all cases, the member is responsible for changes that need to be made in the membership system of the MAA. Changes need to be emailed to the secretary of the MAA.

Article 5. Privacy

- a. Your personal details will be treated carefully and trustfully by the MAA. The MAA will not pass through your personal details to third companies unless you agreed upon this.

- b. Your details are solely used for the purpose the member gave them to us, for example sending your curriculum vitae (CV) to our partners in case of CV selection.

Article 6. Cancellation of the membership

- a. The membership can be cancelled by the member by sending an email to the secretary of the MAA. Your membership is only cancelled after the secretary has confirmed the cancellation.
- b. The cancellation of the membership has to occur before the start of the academic year. Cancellations once the academic year has started (after September 1st) cannot be taken into account. In this case your membership will be cancelled a year later.
- c. Membership can also be cancelled by the MAA. This can happen when a member no longer meets the requirements asked for membership as written in these articles or when the member does not fulfil obligations to the MAA.
