

Terms and Conditions

Marketing Association Amsterdam (MAA)

General Statement

The headings of this document serve as a sole purpose for convenience. They will not limit or otherwise affect these terms and conditions. Throughout this document and other correspondence on the www.ma-amsterdam.nl website, the terms “we”, “us”, and “our” refer to the Marketing Association Amsterdam (MAA). By agreeing to the terms and conditions you are aware that you may not use our products or services for any illegal or unauthorized purposes, nor may you reproduce, duplicate, or (re)sell them.

Article 1. Membership options

- a. There are three possibilities for membership: active membership, passive membership, and alumni membership.
- b. In the first two years of your membership, you are an active or a passive member. Active when you actively help the MAA in a committee, passive when you are not active in a committee.
- c. In your third year, you will automatically be an alumni member. In case you want to become an alumni member in your second year, you may discuss this with the Vice-Chairman of the MAA.

Article 2. What does membership include?

- a. Your membership starts after you have completed the membership application on our website, or by filling in our offline membership form.
- b. The membership year runs parallel with the academic year (September 1st-August 31st) and will automatically be renewed unless the membership was canceled as elaborated on in article 6 below stating the possibilities.
- c. The membership includes free entrance to the MAA-related activities unless stated otherwise. In all other cases being a member means you have a discount for the activities. In those cases, we refer to the terms and conditions of the event itself.
- d. Besides article 2c stated advantages, alumni members can also go to alumni activities, which are not accessible for active or passive members.

- e. Semi-annual membership is possible in the first year of being a member. Every year the current board may decide on the specific date for the semi-annual membership and its price. The same terms and conditions of this document apply for semi-annual membership.

Article 3. Membership fee

- a. The yearly membership fee for all members is €25 (twenty-five euros).
- b. The contribution for the semi-annual membership may vary per year.
- c. The membership fee is collected via automatic bank payment. By accepting the terms and conditions you automatically accept that the membership fee is written off from your bank account. In case you do not have a Dutch bank account, you have to transfer the money to the MAA bank account within a week of application, otherwise, your membership application will be terminated. The MAA bank account details are as follows, To: Marketing Associatie Amsterdam, IBAN: NL55 ABNA 0448 5261 15.

Article 4. Modification of membership details

- a. In all cases, the member is responsible for changes that need to be made in the membership system of the MAA. Changes need to be emailed to the Vice-Chairman of the MAA.

Article 5. Privacy

- a. Your personal details will be treated carefully and trustfully by the MAA. The MAA will not pass through your personal details to third companies unless otherwise stated in the Privacy Policy.
- b. Your details are solely used for the purpose the member gave them to us, for example sending your curriculum vitae (CV) to our partners in case of CV selection.
- c. In case you want additional information, please check our Privacy Policy on the website.

Article 6. Cancellation of the membership

- a. The membership can be canceled by the member by sending an email to the Vice-Chairman of the MAA. Your membership is only canceled after the Vice-Chairman has confirmed the cancellation. For administration purposes the cancellation should be written, hence the request for cancellation should be via e-mail and thus cannot be administered over the phone.

- b. The cancellation of the membership must occur before the start of the academic year. Cancellations, once the academic year has started (after September 1st), cannot be taken into account. In this case, your membership will be canceled the following academic year (i.e. a year later).
- c. If your membership is bilaterally terminated by the Vice-Chairman, you will no longer be able to attend events for MAA members only (i.e. Trainings and Monthly Drinks etc.) nor will you be able to get a member discount should you want to partake in an event. You will be able to join the events that are open to non-MAA members but only through paying the normal fee. If your membership has been terminated by the MAA Board as stated in Article 6d, then you will not be able to attend any of the events as organized by the MAA.
- d. If the MAA Board suspects, in sole judgment, that you fail to comply with these terms and conditions, or with the terms and conditions to which you have agreed when signing up for an MAA event, the MAA Board may also terminate your membership at any given point in time. Such circumstances may occur when a member no longer meets the requirements asked for membership as written in these articles or when the member does not fulfill obligations to the MAA.

Article 7. Cancellation of an Event participation

- a. The following statements are general statements that apply to MAA events, in most cases the MAA event itself has its own terms and conditions which are to be treated as leading.
- b. You are allowed and obliged to take part in the event once you have paid for the event alongside being selected unless otherwise stated in the terms and conditions for that specific event.
- c. You may cancel your participation in an event at any time, however, refunds will only be considered if you cancel within the timeframe as provided by the specific MAA event. Please refer to the terms and conditions for that specific event as they may differ. For more information on the procedures for each event, you may email the Vice-Chairman or the MAA committee organizing the event for further elaboration. Contact details per event are stated on their page within the MAA website.
- d. For the Amsterdam Marketing Event, Amsterdam Commercial Night, Speeddate Event, and Amsterdam Recruitment Event a cancellation within 72 hours before the event will not grant you the right for reimbursement of the participation fee. This timeframe may be extended, and the terms and conditions of these events themselves are leading. Hence, they are subject to change at any given point in time and may be altered by the MAA Board.

- e. If you are selected to take part in the event and have not canceled your participation in time, most events will incur a no-show fee. For the conditions and amount of the fee refer to the event-specific terms and conditions.

Article 8. Responsibility

- a. The MAA does not warrant, guarantee, or represent that our service is error-free or uninterrupted in its entirety.
- b. You agree that the MAA may cancel, change, or remove a certain service at any point in time. You agree that your use of the MAA service, albeit the website or the participation for an event, is at your own risk.
- c. The MAA cannot be held responsible for theft, injuries, damages, or any other inconveniences that might occur during one of our events.
